

SECTION 37 - THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT OR AGENCIES THEREOF37-1 SALES BY AND SALES TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT OR ANY AGENCIES OR INSTRUMENTALITIES THEREOF*A. Exemptions

Sales by and sales directly to the United States Government, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, are not subject to sales or use tax. In order for the sale to be exempt, the government, agency or instrumentality involved must make the purchase of the property, obtain title to the property before or at the time it is delivered and pay directly to the vendor the purchase price of such property or use a United States Government credit card to pay the vendor the purchase price of such property.

B. Federal Agencies and Instrumentalities

Federal agencies and instrumentalities include the Departments of Defense, Army, Navy, Air Force, United States hospitals, American Red Cross, federal reserve banks, federal land banks, federal housing projects, federal housing authorities, and any other department of the Federal Government whose activities are directly under federal control and whose purchases are paid for from the federal treasury. The United States Postal Service is also exempt. Sales made to Army, Navy, and Air Force Activities Funds, post exchanges, officers' mess funds, noncommissioned officers funds and other voluntary unincorporated organizations of Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, or Coast Guard personnel authorized by regulations issued by the Departments of Defense, Army, Navy, or Air Force are likewise exempt from sales and use tax.

C. Purchase Requisitions

A vendor making sales directly to the United States Government, or any agency or instrumentality thereof that issues purchase requisitions or affidavits, must obtain and keep copies of such purchase requisitions or affidavits signed by the purchasing officer stating that such sales are being made directly to the United States Government or an agency or instrumentality thereof. Copies of such purchase requisitions or affidavits must be retained by the vendor in his files for three years following the date of sale and must be available for inspection by the Secretary of Revenue or her agents upon request.
